PAT'S PLACE

PAT YANKEE with DANNY COOTS &
BOB SCHULZ

THE STORY OF JAZZ:

You'll hear first-hand about early artists like Jelly Roll Morton, Louis Armstrong and W.C. Handy. Pat, who's seen it all in a career that spans seven decades, will regale you with stories and songs from the late 20's to the Swing era and tell you about the men and women who pioneered this new art form. Her music will range from the blues of Bessie Smith to the sterling tones of Ella Fitzgerald. Come see and hear this living legend who never holds anything back!

3:20

ADDIE STREET

UPTOWN LOWDOWN

TIN PAN ALLEY:

Tin Pan Alley is the name given to the collection of New York City musicians who dominated popular music in the US in the late 19th and early 20th century. This set will feature their music, from composers such as Irving Berlin, Walter Donaldson, and Jimmy McHugh, in addition to talking about the often colorful history or reason for their tunes.

BRIDGES CONNECTIVE FORCE OF MUSIC:

Music is universal, breaking down barriers of language and background. It connects all of us in ways nothing else on this earth can. Anne and Jeff explore the pathways of the stories and background of some of the most celebrated tunes and composers in our great American musical heritage. A set of high hilarity, deep emotion and enlightening anecdotes, not to mention lots of music, sweet and hot!

CRESCENT KATZ

SHAKEY'S PIZZA PARLOR TRIBUTE:

In 1954, Sherwood "Shakey" Johnson and his partner Ed Plumber opened the first American pizza parlor in Sacramento, California at the corner of 57th and J St. Over the next two decades, Shakey's pizza would spread all over the world, not only spreading good times, but also introducing generations to the traditional jazz that went with the Shakey's experience. Come relive an evening in the back room at the original Shakey's with the Crescent Katz, filled with whoopee fun, strong beer, and hot jazz.
